

Regular Workshops: (without Proceedings)

Submission Template
ISC 2027

A regular workshop (without proceedings) proposal should typically contain the following sections:

1. Name:
 - a. The short name of the workshop should be memorable and hopefully illustrative of what the workshop covers.
 - b. Mention the edition number if it is a returning workshop
 - i. If the workshop used to be held with another conference (not ISC), explicitly state it.
2. Short description
 - a. Mention the workshop scope
 - b. Make a list of topics of interest for the call for participation.
3. Relevance and workshop goals
 - a. Mention the impact that the workshop will have on the community and the ISC audience.
4. Target audience
 - a. Mention the type of audience the workshop is targeting - academic/industry/practitioners/students etc.
 - b. Mention expected audience numbers.
5. Agenda / planned schedule

Please note: Organizers do not need to fill every minute of the program. Workshops that allow for interaction with the audience can be more successful than a dense program.

 - a. What will the workshop program look like? Do you plan to hold some keynotes, invited talks, panels, discussion with the audience?
 - i. Please list the names of intended speakers (tentative).
 - b. Plan the half-day or full-day workshop agenda from the timings given on the ISC website.
7. Previous editions of the workshop (if returning workshop)
 - a. Mention the attendance observed in past editions.
 - b. Mention the number of talks and the length (half/full day) of the past editions.
8. Advertising plan
 - a. Mention how you would advertise the workshop.
 - b. Which mailing lists, social media handles will be used?
 - c. Mention the link to the website if already created.
9. Organizing committee members
 - a. Some of the typical roles are:
 - i. General Chair(s) - Main contacts for communication with ISC
 - ii. Publicity Chair
 - iii. Web Chair
 - iv. Steering Committee

10. Short (300-ish word) bios for the organizer(s)

It should demonstrate why you are the right person to organize this workshop.
